

CATERING NEWS

Ladies listen up. Here's the best kept secret of the Lehigh Valley. Is your husband approaching a magical birthday – say 50, 60 or 70? Did you ever wish you could easily plan a surprise birthday party for him? Now --- the most important word in the last sentence is easily!!! Remember the good old days when the kids were young and you could take them to the bowling alley for a party. All the food is taken care of, the entertainment is taken care of, you did not have to clean the house or work endlessly on the yard, well it's still that easy and here's the secret --- A pig roast at "America On Wheels" off Front Street in Allentown. A museum of "Over The Road Transportation" It's Educational, Entertaining, Economical and A Trip Worth Taking!

Royal Gourmet's food is second to none. You would surely be planning a night that you and your guests would remember forever. But don't just take my word for it. Plan on coming to my Pig Roast at the Jolly Joe Timmer Grove in ----- and get a taste of how good their food really is. People talk about the wonderful time they had at my events and remember them for years. I'm so confident about Royal Gourmet's quality and professionalism; they are the only caterer we use here at the grove.

Give Karen a call at 610-759-8080 Extension 2 to discuss your party needs and options. That number again is 610-759-8080. And give me a call here at the station to order those pig roast tickets.
